

PROJECT PROPOSAL

The fundamental goal of this activity is for you to explore how the tools learned in the class can be used to attack relevant engineering problems.

1. Identify and describe a problem that you would like to model using the tools covered in the class (300-500 words).
2. Describe the type of optimization model that you expect would result